Boss Tweed's Partner Arrested.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—E. A. Woodward, late partner of Wm. M. Tweed, for whom a large reward has been offered, was arrested here this afternoon at the Palmer house, where he was registered as A. Wallace, Liverpool. He was disguised, but was recognized by a New York gentleman and pointed out to the police and locked up at the Central station house, where he will be retained until further steps are taken by the New York authorities. He was very uncommunicative to reporters, but said to Police Superintendent Hickey that he had just arrived from England by way of Savannah, and that he had not seen Tweed for six years. A man registered as J. H. Blamondt was with him at the time of his arrest and remained with him at the station by permission.

Double Murder.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 4.—In a drunken row last night at Taylorsville, a suburb of this city, Reese James killed saloonkeeper Edward James and a man named Caruwo, by stabbing.

Failure.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 4.—Thomas Lough, proprietor of the Brush and Wire Works, made an assignment to-day. His assets are estimated at $50,000; liabilities, $100,000.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Whisky Thief Pardoned.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—A pardon has been issued for Jas. M. Hill, convicted in the U. S. circuit court of Indiana on the 1st of July last of conspiring to defraud the revenue by aiding and abetting the removal of distilled spirits, and sentenced to two and a half years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $500.

Nomination Declined.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Hon. Barbour Lewis, ex-Congressman and ex governor of Tennessee, in a letter addressed by him in this city to day to the chairman of the Memphis Republican convention, declines the nomination for Congress tendered him by the Republicans of the tenth district of that State. He bases his refusal on his belief that success can be better attained through the nomination of some one older.

Secretary Chandler goes to New York.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Secretary Chandler leaves for New York in a day or two, where he will pay close attention to the national committee. He says nothing but fraud can prevent Indiana from going Republican, and he believed fraud will be attempted. Ex-Congressman Jere Wilson writes that there is no doubt Indiana will go Republican. Further information only confirms the desperate character of the men composing the Democratic army reunion at Indianapolis. They are generally bounty jumpers, deserters and rogues of every description taken along to swell the crowd, and willing to go because their expenses are paid.

Spain and the United States.

MADRID, Oct. 4.—It is stated that all differences between Spain and the United States have been arranged, and that a friendly feeling now prevails between the two governments.

The Porte Unable to Control the Mob.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Therapia correspondent of the Times, in a letter dated Sept. 26th, says the Porte grounds its response to the demands of the Powers on its alleged inability to curb the passions of the mob. Its ultima ratio is the threat of a massacre of Christians. The Turkish ministers allege they are constantly receiving anonymous letters, and placards are posted at every corner of Stamboul, threatening popular vengeance on the government if they accept conditions incompatible with the dignity of the empire. Shrewd persons are inclined to believe these menaces are prearranged by the government; but many European residents and even some diplomatists, especially Elliott, the British ambassador, are disgusted. The panic in Pera is almost as general as in May last at the time of the Softa movement.

An Adroit Reply.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—The Turkish cabinet are understood to have declared in regard to the programme submitted to them by the Powers that they cannot be expected to endorse a programme concerning which such differences exist among the Powers. Bismarck who intended to remain at Varzein until November, is shortly expected at Alberdin. Austria has not definitely refused the Russian proposal, but has asked time for a reply, meanwhile Austria has communicated the proposal to the other Powers.

Another Armistice Probable—Prince Milan Apologizes.

BELGRADE, Oct. 4.—Prince Milan has written to Gen. Sumerokoff, the Czar's aid de camp, a letter of apology, exculpating himself in the matter of the royal proclamation. It is reported that England has suggested to Turkey to grant another armistice for three weeks, and that Turkey is disposed to assent. Russia has declared she will do her utmost to prevent Servia from continuing the war, if Austria and England will induce Turkey to grant a formal armistice.

Neutrality of Greece Insisted Upon.

ATHENS, Oct. 4.—The president of the council of ministers, replying to a deputation from the meeting held October 2d, at which the intolerable condition of the Greek provinces of Turkey was discussed, urged the continuance of the neutrality.

More Pressure on Turkey to Accept the Terms of Peace.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A special from Berlin to the Pall Mall Gazette says: The guaranteeing powers are preparing a collective remonstrance calling upon the Porte to accept their proposals. It is hoped this measure will be effectual, as, though the Porte has rejected the proposition, it would not be displeased if the powers applied further pressure, so as to provide it an excuse for ultimately yielding.

Volunteers for Servia.

A Belgrade dispatch says large numbers of volunteers are joining recruits from Germany. Fifty Bavarians and Prussians have arrived lately.

More Fighting between Turkey and Servia.

A Ragusa telegram says four Bosnian battalions attacked the Turks at Kilutsch. The battle lasted all day. Three hundred houses were burned and the Turks suffered severely.

Remarkable Coincidence.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A Vienna correspondent of the Times says it is stated that Gen. Sumarokoff did not go to Belgrade because the position of affairs had completely changed since he received his instructions from the Czar, which were given him during the first truce. Accordingly the date of the Czar's letter to the Emperor of Austria is important. It would be a remarkable coincidence if that day should tally with the day on which Prince Milan's ministers asked for time to consider the proposition for a suspension of hostilities, and if it should prove that the departure of Sumarokoff on his mission was concurrent with Servia's refusal of the proposals. This is believed to be the case.

Russia Arming.

A Times dispatch from Berlin says Russia is arming with energy, and that valuable furniture and other moveables have been taken out of the Russian chapel and hospital at Constantinople and sent to Odessa. The Russian journals speak of the redoubled activity in the government gun factory.

Austria Preparing for War.

The Austrian government has called in recruits earlier than usual, and is making preparations for the immediate modification of some corps d'armee, besides the troops stationed on the southern frontier. In consequence of an inquiry from Austria, England has confidentially intimated that she neither approves of, nor will co-operate in a military occupation of Turkey. Should there be such occupation her course will be solely guided by a regard for her own interests. As Count Andrassy had advised the Emperor Francis Joseph to take no part with Russia in military intervention without the approval of the other powers, Russia will be obliged to withdraw from her advanced position, or her love of peace will be overcome by popular enthusiasm.

A Paris correspondent says every one is now convinced that the peace of Europe can only be maintained by a conference. The only question is, shall the conference be preceded by military occupation, or shall that follow. The Porte will probably accede to the wishes of the Powers, when it sees that the latter means to impose an armistice by military force.

German Gun Makers Hired by Servia.

A Belgrade telegram to the Times reports that the Servian government has hired 20 mechanics from the German imperial gun factory for six months.

Tortures Inflicted on the Servians.

Gen. Tchernayeff sends a telegraphic dispatch to the Daily News stating that terrible tortures are inflicted on the Servians by the Turks, and the Servians are so exasperated that it is impossible to prevent them committing similar cruelties in retaliation.

Turkish Villages Raided.

A dispatch from Nisch to the Times says, during the past few days Circassian bands have attacked Arkuland and Kersbovitt, and burned 18 Turkish villages and murdered six Musulmen.

Alarm in the Transvaal Republic.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Advices by mail from Cape Town to September 9th, report that affairs in the Transvaal Republic were alarming. Owing to the defeat of the Dutch troops, the natives had become unmanageable. King Secula was about to lead 10,000 men to attack Transvaal and threatened the wholesale massacre of the Boers.

Strong War Spirit in Constantinople.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Constantinople represents that a stormy war spirit is manifested by the populace. The commencement of hostilities with Russia would be welcome to the Mussulmans and is considered by them unavoidable.

Montenegro Wants Peace.

A telegram to the Daily News from Regosi reports that the losses of the Montenegrins in the campaign, which amounts to 4,000 killed, have produced a reaction in favor of peace. It is possible that a separate treaty with the Porte will be made.

Governor-General of Cuba.

A dispatch from Madrid announces that General Martinez Campos has been appointed governor-general of Cuba.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Heavy Loss of Vessels.

HALIFAX, Oct. 4.—The steamer Leopard has arrived at St. Johns, New Foundland, and reports the loss of 37 vessels with their cargoes, on the Labrador coast. No lives were reported lost. All the vessels lost were in harbors and at anchor.

CANADA.

Aid for Savannah.

QUEBEC, Oct. 4.—Ship laborers held a meeting and voted $200 for yellow fever victims at Savannah.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Agricultural Show.

VICTORIA, Oct. 4.—There was a large gathering at Saanich yesterday at the agricultural show. The exhibition was not large owing to the backwardness of the season. The show of horses, cows, etc., was very good; grain, butter and cheese were first class. A ball was given in the evening. The show of the British Columbia Agricultural Society takes place here to-morrow. The prizes amount to $1,200, and there is every prospect of the exhibition proving to be a most successful one.

No sign of the steamer Dakota up to noon to-day.

In pursuance of the above call the voters of Santiam precinct met and organized the Santiam Greenback Club, with W. C. Foren, president; J. M. Hassler, vice president; J. J. Dorris, secretary; Frank Crabtree, assistant; James Crabtree, treasurer.

T. M. Daniel, J. R. South and D. F. Crabtree were appointed a committee on rules and regulations.

On motion the committee was ordered to furnish for publication a copy of the call, with the proceedings of the club, to the newspapers of Albany, the Farmer and OREGONIAN.

On motion a call was made for a mass convention, to be held in Salem, Oregon, on Monday, the 16th of October, 1876, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of making a Cooper and Carey electoral ticket, and the appointment of a State central committee and the expediency of a complete party organization.

On motion it was resolved that all who are in favor of the great independent greenback movement are cordially invited to come forward and help vindicate the rights of industry and the legitimate business of the nation, and for defeating of the selfish and bigoted bondholding oligarchy that is trying to turn the entire resources of the nation to their own interest and the impoverishment of the people.

On motion J. R. South was appointed a committee to visit Salem and procure a place to hold the mass convention.

THE ASSESSMENT LAWS.

ANOTHER PLAN.

OREGON CITY, Oct. 2, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

It is an admitted fact that our present assessment law fails of its object, in providing for stringent measures for equalizing values and bringing the rich and poor on the same level of tax paying. Conscious of this, several methods have already been introduced in the legislature looking to a more equitable adjustment of assessments; but so far as I have been able to learn, none of them are comprehensive. They only suggest a truce and a compromise where the change ought to be radical and thorough. But the manifold duties of a member of the legislature, are so engrossing that he has no time, even if he had the talent, to build from its foundation a superstructure of law relating to assessments which will square to constitutional tests and at the same time mete out even handed justice to all. It requires a research into methods, a critical acumen and judicial knowledge which few legislators would have the temerity to claim, even in their softest lapses of egotism. And even if vanity took them so far, no one could presume that the law would leap panoplied from their Jove like brains in the midst of a button-holing, perquisite-hunting campaign of forty days. For this reason I wish to ask the question in an humble way, would it not be well to constitute a board of equalization duly empowered to adjust the palpable enormities of assessment, and in the meantime appoint a commission at a moderate salary to digest not only one, but two or three analytical methods of assessment, each one built up on a rigorous groundwork of justice and complete in itself, so that a succeeding Legislature would have a choice of methods elaborated for them to choose from, which would be very apt to withstand all legal attack, as delivered to the Legislature by the commission? I believe this would be the very best plan to work upon. What will it avail the martyr, John Myers, in our county, who is exuding blood and sweat in these dog days on an assessment law that cannot withstand constitutional tests? In that bitter hour, when it will be so decided, will not this good man rummage over all the old saws he ever knew and choose "all is vanity saith the preacher" as a solace for the wounds of overwork? I would like to see authority given Judge Deady and Judge Shattuck within the next two years to compile methods of assessment that would faithfully meet the demands of our people. They are able, competent and learned, and no equitable assessment law will ever be devised for Oregon without time being given to jurists to evolve it. What do you say to the proposition, Mr. OREGONIAN?

In this order the procession marched from Pioneer Hall to the Mechanics' Pavilion. The streets at the time of the march were thronged with people and the pavilion crowded. Dr. Stone, the procession reformed and marched out through the Eighth street entrance, to Market, to Jones, to Turk, where it was dismissed. John Lick on his way to San Francisco.

A telegram was received yesterday from John Lick. He left Lebanon for San Francisco immediately on receiving the news of his father's death, and is expected to arrive here next Sunday. He is credited with the remark that he knows what he will do when he gets here, but is very reticent as to his intentions.

State Grange.

The California State Grange reassembled at 10 A. M. to-day and completed the details of organization. Various topics were called up for discussion, the most important being amendments to the State Grange, submitted for ratification. There have been three amendments to the National and five to the State Grange submitted. The representation of granges throughout the State is very large, and delegates continue to arrive on every train and steamer. The convention will not adjourn before Friday.

The State Grange continued its session this evening; Blake Pilkington was elected State Lecturer in place of J. W. A. Wright, who has been absent for the last year in Europe on grange business. The wheat question in its relations to freights and prices has been fully discussed; but no intimation has yet been given of the conclusions arrived at.

W. H. L. Barnes and Horace Davis, Republican candidate for Congress in this district, addressed a large mass meeting at Platt's Hall this evening on campaign issues. Fire—Distressing Calamity.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 4.—Last night a fire occurred here, which resulted in a most distressing calamity. Mrs. Mary Ledwidge, widow of the late John Ledwidge, in early days a well known member of the San Francisco fire department, and her three children resided in a small house near Christian College. Mrs. Ledwidge had been spending the day with some friends in the country and the children were also away from home. At half-past 10 o'clock the fire broke out in her house, which, with all its contents, were entirely consumed. After the house was burned down, the remains of Mrs. Ledwidge were found, burned to a crisp. The supposition is that she returned home shortly before the fire, and entering the house alone, attempted to light a lamp, and by some means set fire to the building. It was not positively known that she had returned until the building and its contents was nearly consumed.

Trout Creek Homicide.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Probable Shipwreck.

ROSEBURG, Oct. 4.—The following extra is issued by the Douglas Independent: The Leeds, a vessel well known on this coast, is now over ten days due at Gardiner. Mr. J. Kennedy, just from the place named, says that the vessel was reported when first due standing off the Umpqua bar, and two days after she attempted to sail in and was capsized by a squall, which struck her just as she was crossing the bar and keeled over. This is reported by the master of the tug at the mouth of the river. She was not seen after the accident occurred, nor was any one picked up from the shore, and this leads to the belief that the vessel either filled by water pouring into the hold or she drifted upon the rocks, which caused her to sink or dash to pieces. At last accounts nothing had been picked up from the wreck, and this satisfies many that the vessel sank in deep water with her officers and crew, all of whom perished. It is not known, at the present writing, whether there were any passengers on board or not, and nothing will be learned with this regard until news is received from the port whence the Leeds cleared.

INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND.

While Oregon perhaps may yet be in her infancy in many respects, she is not far behind many older States in her public philanthropic institutions, and has contributed quite liberally out of her limited means for the education and instruction of those classes whose misfortunes have prevented them from taking care of themselves. Perhaps there is no one class more deserving of public aid and sympathy than those deprived of sight. While the deaf mute is deprived of hearing and speech, he can by proper education be taught to read, and is thus enabled to inform himself on almost any subject beneath the sun, and can converse with intelligent people through the medium of the pencil or pen. They possess that greatest of all heavenly gifts, the sense of sight, and can avail themselves of that scarcely secondary privilege of reading, and can in this way pass many an otherwise lonely hour both pleasantly and profitably to themselves. How different is it with the blind. Groping in darkness through this beautiful world of ours, the sense of hearing seems at times almost an aggravation when they cannot see the cause. True, they can converse with friends which in itself is a blessing indeed, and endowed as they doubtless are with a more acute sense of hearing and feeling than are those possessed of that of sight, they are enabled to accomplish very many things that are truly astonishing. They are able to read but very little, their library of raised or dotted letters, being limited in the extreme. It seems therefore but just and right that we who are endowed with all of heaven's best gifts to man should contribute liberally to the support and education of this and other unfortunate classes of society. State governments recognize this claim upon the commonwealth, and make provisions for them at the expense of an ever-willing public who would much prefer to see money appropriated for this purpose than to see it go into the pockets of individuals or corporations who, by intrigue and strategy, have succeeded in getting some "favorite job" through the legislative assembly and thereby enriched themselves at the expense of the public and too often to the deprivation of more worthy objects.

It was for the purpose of witnessing the progress made by the blind pupils and to learn the method of teaching them that the members of the Oregon Legislature met in joint convention Tuesday evening last, and the occasion drew out an unusually large crowd of spectators who flocked in and crowded the legislative hall to its utmost capacity. The pupils, ten in number, occupied seats at the head of the hall, while the Salem ladies, with their escorts, filled the seats on either side, the lobby being filled with the sterner sex. A piano and two sewing machines appeared strangely out of place in front, while dozens of gas jets threw a brilliant light over all. At 8 o'clock the President of the Senate called the assemblage to order, and at once introduced Prof. C. H. Kiser, principal of the institute, who preluded the exhibition with a few remarks. The present scholastic year, he said, commenced in October, 1875, the school lasting but six months, when the appropriation ran out, the scholars returning home. The present term commenced about three weeks ago. The institution, like those of the East, was divided into three departments—literary, musical and mechanical—the latter being hardly developed as yet. The method of instruction was modern in detail, and such as was in use in the majority of the nineteen like institutions in the United States. More attention was paid to the literary department than any other, the rudiments of the musical being imparted, scholars were by practice enabled to perfect themselves in this branch after leaving school. The education of the blind should commence when the scholar is young, unless accident should deprive them of sight at a mature age, when the probabilities were they had received a literary education, when they could enter the mechanical department and learn to do with their hands many things that would earn them a livelihood. The mechanical department rarely pays expenses, as, of course, in their work they were compelled to compete with mechanics whose sight was unimpaired. He then showed us the progress made by his pupils in practical and mental arithmetic. Gilbert Maguire, a bright little chap of some 12 or 14 summers readily added such sums as 295-,-876-1-341, while others multiplied 580x739, doing it mentally, as well as more difficult examples in fractions and interest. They perform more complicated examples by means of type which are set in little frames manufactured for that purpose. Two types only are used to represent the ten figures, one of them has a T on one end and a V on the other. The first with the cross bar up denotes 1, with it to the right 2, left 3, down 4, while the V with the open part similarly inverted denotes 5, 6, 7, 8, and another type with appropriate characters furnishes them with the 9 and 0. With this little device they are able to perform almost any example, let it be difficult or otherwise. The line system of reading is or has been rather in general use in this country, but is recently becoming secondary to what is termed the New York point system, which Prof. Kiser has introduced here with marked success. It is not only more easily deciphered with the sense of touch, but has the double advantage of being more easily learned and readily written when once acquired, while the raised or line system cannot be written without very great difficulty. The dotted system is performed with a puncheon, and when written is like forcing a darning needle through the paper, the rough side being sensitive to the touch. The institute has been the means of doing great good, and the course of musical instruction is thorough indeed, the principal being a first class musician. Miss Amy Walling and Josie Watkins performed some very creditable solos last evening, and others gave us some excellent vocal selections nicely rendered.

Miss Blanche Savage and Hattie McFadden used sewing machines with evident skill, threading their own needles and guiding their work with good success. The school is under the matronly care of Mrs. John Gray who takes great interest in its advancement, and keeps a watchful and affectionate eye over all under her care. She is undoubtedly efficient in every way, and is greatly beloved by the pupils. Mr. Kiser is a gentlemanly, agreeable teacher, and very thoroughly instructed in every branch, and takes great interest in the school. The pupils all board at the institute and are cared for as members of the family. The pupils made many friends last evening by their efficiency and deportment, and in closing we but echo the sentiments of every one present, when we hope for them a liberal appropriation at the hands of the legislative assembly.

WIDE AWAKE.

WHY HAYES WENT INTO THE WAR.—In April Sumter fell, and Lincoln's call for troops came, and with it came an end of all theories, all speculation beyond the question of the hour. At Cincinnati, as throughout the whole North, a wild outburst of the embattled public sentiment answered the call. "I shall never forget," Hayes writes, "that Sunday evening," when the summons came. He was himself a leader of the popular enthusiasm, and wrote the resolutions of the largest of the public meetings held to welcome the summons. "Let what evils may follow, I shall not soon cease to rejoice over this event." Then on the 15th of May, in words that seem still to burn with the sublime impulses of that hour, he records the purpose from which he never faltered through the four years of war that followed: "Judge Matthew and I have agreed to go into the service for the war—if possible, into the same regiment. I spoke my feelings to him, which he said were his own, that this was just and necessary war, and that it demanded the whole power of the country; that I would prefer to go into it if I knew I was to be killed in the course of it, rather than to live through and after it without taking any part in it."—Howell's Life of Governor Hayes.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 5, 1876.

THE EASTERN MUDDLE.

The Eastern question becomes daily more and more bewildering. If we understand the latest dispatches relative to the attitude of all parties, Russia wants peace, only she don't, England wants justice, only she don't, Austria does not exactly know what she does want, and the immediate parties to the conflict want to see some way out of a very bad predicament. Mr. John Bright addresses a meeting in his borough of Manchester, and electrifies his audience with some vocular generalities about English blood being wanted in behalf of the Ottoman empire, as if another Crimean campaign were talked of, and Russia sends Austria a note approving of the idea of peace on the basis of the reforms agreed to by the Porte, but appending a condition which would be little short of a surrender of the Porte's European provinces into the hands of the powers. And then comes the London Times, which must always be taken into account as one of the powers, and notifies the world and Russia in particular, that there is no necessity for the guaranties demanded by Russia, as England proposes to take upon herself the responsibility of seeing to it that the Turks perform their part of the agreement.

And while all this interminable and almost unintelligible plotting and counterplotting goes on, time passes and the rebels receive reinforcements from their Russian sympathizers and the prospect of peace becomes more remote every day. While half the nations are planning and scheming at cross purposes to thwart each other in a matter that is no legitimate concern of theirs, the real parties in interest have immunity from their serious wranglings. It is devoutly to be wished that all these Christian powers that are so deeply affected by the effusion of blood but stand aloof lest one should get an advantage over another in the settlement, may continue their masterly inactivity till the natural course of events brings about an adjustment in the interest of general civilization and progress, which can only be reached through the final downfall of the Moslem rule in Europe.

THAT ARRANGEMENT IN LOUISIANA.

The dispatches repeat the story telegraphed some days since of a probable arrangement between the Republicans and the better class of Democrats of Louisiana to elect the Democratic candidate for Governor and the Republican candidates for Presidential Electors. It is to be hoped the arrangement will be carried out, as it would be of no little consequence to the State to give its Electoral vote to Hayes, especially if that vote were given through Democratic influence; and on the other hand the defeat of Packard, the Republican candidate for Governor, is much to be desired. He [illegible] too intimate connection with the infamous carpet-bag regime in that State to be a good Governor. It is extraordinary, in fact, that he should have been nominated by the Republicans for Governor, with Wheeler on their ticket for Vice President. It will be remembered that Packard was viciously active in putting up and endeavoring to sustain the swindle which in 1875 produced the overthrow of the Louisiana legislature by the military; and that in the spring following it was Wheeler who led in the fight against that outrage and compelled a restoration of the lawful legislature. That transaction cost Pinchback his prospects of a United States Senatorship, he being excluded from the seat he claimed under an election by the bogus legislature created by Packard & Co., but it did not cost Packard his standing among the management at New Orleans. The people whose rights were so ably defended by the Republican candidate for Vice President, and so handsomely vindicated by a Republican Congress, could not do a more handsome thing than to vote for Hayes and Wheeler and against the man who, as much as any other, made Wheeler's noble conduct necessary.

RECEIPTS, DISBURSEMENTS AND LOSSES OF THE GOVERNMENT.

We have received a copy of a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the government from its organization to June 30, 1861; exhibiting also the defalcations and the ratio of such losses to the aggregate received and disbursed. This statement was prepared in response to a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury by Mr. Boutwell.

Some of the results shown will be surprising, especially to those who are in the habit of lauding past times and sighing for their return. It will be seen from some extracts of this statement that the ratio of losses by way of defalcation since 1861 is much less than during the time prior to that date.

During the last twenty-two years the receipts of the government have been as follows:

	Receipts.	Loans.	Loss on $1 0 0
Pierce...	$ 281 179 829 56	$ 219 001 78	$0 75
Buchanan..	312,659 670 56	194,001 83	62
Lincoln....	4,670,466,127 61	546,494 60	10
Johnson...	4 012 816,178 46	2,502,721 90	61
Grant.....	1 996,808 453 81	1 276 882 60	31

The disbursements during the same time have been as follows:

	Disbursements.	Loans	Loss on $1 000
Pierce.....	$ 285 638 675 65	$1 471 852 64	$5 80
Buchanan	328,183 368 39	2,292 [illegible] 72	6 98
Lincoln	4,667 4 [illegible] 921 22	6,090 0 2 91	1 41
Johnson	3,801,076,259 10	1,869 611 17	45
Grant ...	4 077 858 383 21	1 910 541 29	35

The above accounts do not include the postoffice account, which is as follows:

	Disbursements.	Loans	Loss on $1,000
Pierce	$ 40 473,110 70	[illegible]	$9 92
Buchanan	58 907 923 74	174,578 46	3 02
Lincoln...	58 779,083 45	73,467 63	1 31
Johnson	81 016 757 91	167 [illegible] 74	2 06
Grant.	160 869 [illegible] 12	1 2 768 [illegible]	89

The highest average of loss of receipts occurred in the administration of Andrew Jackson, when the defalcation amounted to $5 33 in every thousand dollars, and the lowest in that of James K. Polk, when the loss only amounted to eight cents. The next lowest average was in Mr. Lincoln's administration, being ten cents in the thousand dollars.

There were more dishonest disbursing officers under Martin Van Buren, Tilden's preceptor, when the average of loss was $21 15 in the $1,000, than under any other President, and fewer under Grant, when the average of loss was only 0.35 in the thousand dollars.

Lumping receipts and disbursements together, it appears that the government officers have handled prior to June 30 1861, $1,719 181 157 63 and since then $25 576 202,805 52. The losses by defalcation prior to June 30, 1861, were $24,111,829 32, or an average of $5 17 in the thousand dollars. The losses from the same cause subsequent to July 1, 1861, were $14,060,776 07, or an average of 0 57 in the thousand dollars!

This statement is no doubt substantially correct. Its variation from exact accuracy is so slight that it would not affect the averages in any material degree. It shows that the defalcations before the war averaged ten times as high as they have done since it began, and since the government came into the hands of the Republicans.

Next Monday Ohio and Indiana will hold their State elections. The campaign has been a brisk one in both States, and the result may be regarded as in a measure decisive of their vote in the Presidential election. It will be also influential in determining the course of other States. Should the Republicans carry both of these States, as we have little doubt they will, the Democrats may as well retire from the contest at once and save their labor and money. The importance of carrying these States now is fully realized by Shammy Tilden and the other shams who are trying to impose him on the people as a reformer, and they are leaving nothing undone that promises a vote for their candidates. It is charged, and with much the appearance of truth, that preparations are making on a scale of unprecedented magnitude to carry the election next Tuesday by fraudulent votes imported from Kentucky. Republicans are alert and expect to be able to thwart the outrageous design. It is apparent that warm times are to be seen at the principal towns and cities where, if anywhere, the fraudulent voting will be attempted.

From the way the municipal elections went the other day in Connecticut it would appear by no means improbable that the State will give its electoral vote for Hayes and Wheeler. "Tilden and Reform" does not seem to possess a very potential charm for the land of wooden nutmegs. So much has transpired of late illustrating Mr. Tilden's peculiar methods in the matter of reform, that the Connecticut people are perhaps beginning to see, despite the obtuseness of the ordinary Bourbon intellect upon political subjects, that Tilden's name does not tally with true reform ideas. We shall probably have to revise our table of the electoral vote and place Connecticut in the column of those States that are going for Hayes and Wheeler and real reform.

This afternoon, Hon Richard Williams, Republican, and Hon. Lafayette Lane, Democratic candidate for Congress will speak at Albany. Republicans should be present in order that their faith may be strengthened and Democrats, that they may be shown their errors, for they do say where the two have spoken heretofore that Mr. Williams handles his opponent as easily and as handsomely as a school boy his top. We are not advised yet what Mr. Lane has to offer in explanation of his inflation vote in Congress. He carefully avoids that. On certain others points Williams has at various places pushed him to the wall where he has stood, like the unfortunate youth of the old story, with nothing to say.

The Porte is stated to have given as a reason for not accepting the conditions of peace prepared by the great Powers, that it could not restrain the passions of the mob. This is probably the real, though humiliating, reason. The Turkish ministers cannot be so blind as not to see the great peril in which the country is and cannot be so foolish as to risk the existence of the Empire itself by refusing to accede to the conditions proposed by the Powers. But still they hesitate about accepting them, and there can be no other reason for doing so than the blind fanaticism of the populace.

It is proposed to make Capt. Ostrom, who coached and rowed with the famous Cornell boat crew, professor of physical culture at Cornell University. Capt. Ostrom has recently written a capital letter on the subject of training, which shows that his views are eminently sound and sensible. The unparalleled success of his crew at Saratoga demonstrated the real value of his theories.

The Republican victory in Colorado is overwhelming. In many counties there have been gains of over one hundred per cent. This is a precursor of the victories next week in Indiana and Ohio, and foreshadows the election of Hayes and Wheeler by great majorities.

RUPTURE!

No More Metalic Trusses Used!

No More Suffering from Iron Hoops or Steel Springs!

THE SUPERIORITY OF OUR ELASTIC Trusses over the rigid Iron Hoops, which in former days were the only resource of the ruptured, admits of NO ARGUMENT.

By means of this appliance the pressure on the Rupture itself can be made uniform and continuous, and to the extent required in each case, until a slight inflammation of the parts is secured, and the consequent effusion of lymph which is essential to a healing process, and from this time to the conclusion of the treatment, the pressure, being entirely within the control of the patient, can be lessened daily as the adhesion progresses and the body becomes sound. All cases of reducible Hernia are permanently relieved without regard to the age of the patient or the duration of the injury, while in its action it is wholly free from all the cruelty that has characterized the treatment of the malady with tortuous Metal Trusses from the earliest age to the present day. Your attention is called to the following facts:

1st—There are no springs to press upon or to injure the back.

2d—It is simple in construction, and not liable to get out of order.

3d—This instrument is worn with perfect ease while riding horseback.

4th—The Rupture is retained and the pressure the same while in any position.

5th—It has none of the injurious results of metallic Trusses.

6th—It will perform radical cures when all others fail.

7th—It is worn with ease and comfort night and day, which cannot be said truthfully of any metal Truss whatever.

Experience shows that all tempered spring Trusses necessarily press upon and often disease parts of the body that before were in a perfectly healthy condition. Lumbago and other equally distressing ailments are not unfrequently the outgrowth of such pressure and in view of this fact it becomes a matter of decided consequence to avoid like calamities if possible.

Examination Free. The closest scrutiny of physicians solicited.

Beware of Bogus articles called Elastic Trusses. Dr. ROWE, Inventor and Patentee of Elastic Trusses. All parties infringing either by sale or manufacture will be dealt with in such manner as the law provides.

EUGENE ITEMS.

Under date of Oct. 4th, our Eugene correspondent sends the following:

D. L. Halpruner of Portland, yesterday recovered damages against the Italian circus.

The fire company last Monday elected T. J. Smith foreman, in place of B. C. Van Houten, resigned.

Receipts of grain are light as yet at this point. Buyers yesterday were offering 66@67 cents on cars.

The city council has repealed our Sunday law and the only noticeable effect is that drunken men again desecrate the Sabbath and disturb the more orderly part of the community.

The following persons are the successful applicants for scholarships in the State University, from Lane county: George Nolan, J. Stevens, L. Hales, Albert Jackson, Louis Foley, Mary Zull, and Lizzie Geary.

The town has again been thrown into a fever heat of excitement by the discovery of a case of smallpox. W. H. Abrams is the gentleman afflicted with that disease, caught by him, it is supposed, from the physician who attended on the cases at Mr. Lakin's. Through the stupidity or ignorance of the physician the patient had been broken out four days before it was pronounced smallpox. During that time a great number have been exposed and it will be almost impossible to stop the disease with a single case.

Clothing sold very low at Kohn's

The perfect points of all first class machines are combined in the make up of the No. 8 Wheeler & Wilson. All who have examined it recommend it as the best now in use.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice, mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. Is extraordinarily successful in treating female complaints.

Sore eyes speedily relieved. The worst form of piles cured, and the most malignant cancers eradicated root and branch without the use of the knife, or the money refunded.

NEW STEAMER ALMOTA.

The O. S. N. Co.'s new steamer Almota left Celilo on the 28th ult., bound for Lewiston, at 1:30 o'clock P. M. Umatilla was reached without delay, the steamer working splendidly. The Almota left Umatilla at 4:30 A. M. on the 29th, passed Wallula at 8 A. M., the boat crossing Umatilla rapids with apparent ease. At 9 A. M. she crossed Homely rapids where, owing to recent improvements there is a channel at low water for boats drawing 5 feet. Passing up Snake river, the boat crossed first Five-mile rapid, where the water rushes with great velocity through a narrow channel which passes through a ledge of rocks. The next rapid crossed was Fish Hook, which was dangerous and difficult, but which the boat crossed without trouble. Lower Pine Tree Rapid was reached, about 1 o'clock P. M. and the boat again passed through a narrow and difficult channel, the water hissing and boiling over the rocks around. At 5 P. M. the Almota entered the upper rapids. The channel approaching the island on the right was full of boulders, while from behind the island the current poured through two openings with great velocity. As the boat moved up and opposite the middle of this island she struck a rock, smashing a bottom plank and immediately filling one compartment with water. Another effort was made to cross, without success, when the boat was run to the island and secured for the night. The rapids at this stage appear to be nearly a mile long. The ledge of rock seems to extend nearly across, with a narrow channel obstructed by boulders, the water swift and the difficulties insurmountable. To render this channel safe for navigation at low water, a large amount of work will have to be done. Pine Tree rapids is probably the worst on the two rivers. Besides the hole in the hull, the wheel of the boat was badly smashed while endeavoring to get over. Failing to cross Pine Tree rapid, it was concluded to return. In getting away from the island the boat was handled splendidly, and Capt. Baughman extricated her with great skill from her dangerous position. On the way back, the boat again struck a rock on Fish Hook rapids and just escaped striking another in the narrow and intricate channel through Five Mile rapid. The Almota reached Wallula at 10 o'clock A. M., on Saturday 30th, where she took on board 160 tons of wheat. She left Wallula early on the morning of October 1st, and reached Celilo, a distance of 106 miles after a run of eight hours, burning less than four cords of wood and drawing about 2½ feet aft and 3 forward, one compartment of her hold being filled with water. The new boat handles handsomely under all circumstances.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 1876.

Gentlemen—I would report that I have made an analysis of your three brands of Noble Whisky distilled by you at Cincinnati, viz
I Crown Cyrus Noble Old Bourbon.
II " " " " "
III " " " " "
And find the same to be free from any deleterious substance and particularly free from that very objectionable substance fusel oil, showing that great care has been taken in their manufacture

CYRUS NOBLE DISTILLERY, 1st Dist., O.
CINCINNATI, April 1, 1876.
Messrs. LILIENTHAL & Co.
Gentlemen—I have just returned from a trip through Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia, undertaken for the purpose of examining the various distilleries in those districts, and I am now more than ever confirmed in the opinion, so often expressed to you, that your distillery is the most complete, and best conducted of any in the United States.
The careful selection of your grain, the purity of the water, the slower and more cautious method of distillation, is what gives the NOBLE WHISKY its superior qualities, and has gained for it the reputation which it universally sustains throughout the United States.
Gratified that the 20 years devoted to the distillation of the CYRUS NOBLE WHISKY, has been attended with such happy results, I trust I may be spared to continue my labors in its interest, and that of its many patrons and consumers.
I am, Gentlemen,
Yours faithfully,
CYRUS NOBLE.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The great reputation which our Cyrus Noble Whisky has enjoyed in medical practice throughout the [illegible] and Europe for a period of nearly 25 years, prompts us to bring it to the notice of the Public of the Pacific Coast for similar use.
Its absolute purity, having by analysis been found to be entirely free from FUSEL OIL, and the improved quality imparted to it by its being retained in store for at least from 5 to 6 years after distillation, has given to the Physician a remedy long sought for in his own Materia Medica.
The certificates we hold of its efficacy in the treatment of [illegible] where NERVOUS PROSTRATION exists and vitality is at a low ebb, as is frequently [illegible] endemic to our country, of DYSPEPSIA, with its whole train of gastric troubles, of [illegible] of the LIVER and the BLADDER, of CONSUMPTION, affording effective and [illegible] relief to the afflicted victim, and of [illegible] or blood poisoning, resulting in its use as a disinfectant [illegible] premature death, are all highly gratifying to us, and we believe we owe it to our numerous patrons on the coast to use every endeavor to introduce it here.
Very respectfully,
LILIENTHAL & CO.

THURSDAY MORNING OCTOBER 5, 1876

WASHINGTON TERRITORIAL FAIR

From the Olympia Echo we glean the following

THE SIXTH ANNUAL FAIR

Opened on Monday, and the day was spent in receiving and arranging articles for exhibition. During the forenoon of Tuesday it became evident that the space allowed for display of vegetables and fruit would be entirely too small so the carpenters prepared their suitable stands. The arranging of articles for exhibition continued through the day. At about 3 o clock Hon T M Reed delivered the opening address in the dancing hall, before a small but attentive audience. After the address, President Bush thanked the speaker for his remarks, and declared the sixth annual exhibition of the Washington Industrial Association to be formally opened

An eating house, a candy man factory fruit and confectionery stands, etc., are distributed about the main building. The argumentative spring-bed man, and the noisy sewing machine [illegible], are both present, lending wind to the [illegible].

On Wednesday the committees judges and experts will be busy examining the various exhibits and considering awards. An address will be delivered at 1 o'clock, to be followed by the first racing. Dancing will finish the day.

Thursday, an address and racing dancing as usual

On Friday, the annual address; annual election of directors racing and annual ball

Saturday, at 10 o clock the great foot race will take place between representatives from Olympia and any one who deems it prudent to walk out upon the track

The fair grounds are one mile from the city hall, a good plank road extends from town to within a few rods of the gate

POISONS AND ANTIDOTES.

It not infrequently happens that serious [illegible] are [illegible] by the [illegible] of [illegible], and it occurs [illegible] that [illegible] do a service to some of our readers by [illegible]ting them with a brief and [illegible] of the more common poisons and the remedies for them most likely to be [illegible]

Acids—These cause great heat and sensation of burning [illegible] the mouth down to the stomach. Remedies—Magnesia, soda, pearl ash or soap, dissolved in water then use stomach pump or emetics.

Alkalies. Best remedy is vinegar

Ammonia—Remedy—Lemon juice or vinegar, afterward, milk and water or flaxseed tea.

Alcohol. First cleanse out the stomach by an emetic, then dash cold water on the head and give [illegible] (spirits of hartshorn)

Arsenic [illegible]. In the first place evacuate the stomach; then give the white of eggs, lime-water or chalk and [illegible] and the preparation of iron [illegible] hydrate.

Lead—White lead and sugar of lead. Remedies [illegible] Alum and cathartics, such as castor oil and [illegible] salts especially.

Charcoal—In poisons by carbonic gas remove the patient to open air, dash cold water on the head and body, and stimulate nostrils and lungs by hartshorn, at the same time rubbing the chest briskly.

Corrosive sublimate. Give white of eggs freshly mixed with water, or give wheat flour and water or soap and water freely.

Creosote. White of eggs and emetics.

[illegible] or night henbane—Give emetics [illegible] and water, with a [illegible]

[illegible] Give a strong solution of common salt and then [illegible]

Opium. [illegible] give a strong [illegible] of mustard and [illegible] strong coffee and acid [illegible] water on the head

Laudanum. Same as opium.

Nux Vomica. [illegible] then brandy.

Oxalic Acid. Frequently mistaken for epsom salts [illegible] then emetics.

Nitrate of potash—Give [illegible] white of eggs [illegible] tea, milk and water, and [illegible] soothing drinks.

[illegible] administer [illegible] in the [illegible] of [illegible] or lime. Hot [illegible] and [illegible] are also [illegible] Hartford Courant.
